

As an Indiana resident who has become free from those daily calls from tele-marketers I urge the FCC to exempt states who have passed strict tele-marketer laws from your lesser set of controls being considered in proceeding 02-278. The Indiana legislature finally got something right. I urge you to leave it the way it is.